SMILES: Pupils jump for joy at Normanhurst School, Chingford

STUDENTS from across east London are jumping for joy after picking up outstanding GCSE grades.

Pupils in Barking and Dagenham, Redbridge and Waltham Forest went back to school last Thursday to discover their results.

A number of schools outperformed previous years and did better than the national average, winning high praise from headteachers.

James Luck, headteacher of Roding Valley High School, Alderton Hill, Loughton, said: "I would like to congratulate the students for achieving such an impressive set of GCSE results. We are proud of the achievements of our students and this set of results reflects an enormous amount of hard work and dedication."

Christian Cavanagh, executive headteacher of Debden Park High School, Willingale Road, Loughton, said: "A record number of students smashed national averages for progress and this has resulted in the school adding 15 points to its overall progress score."

Michael Punt, headmaster of Chigwell School, High Road, said: "We are very proud."

Frances Howart, headteacher of West Hatch High School, High Road, Chigwell, said: "These results reflect all the tremendous hard work put in by our pupils and staff."

Festival comes to Walthamstow Village

RESIDENTS can enjoy a free festival of music, food and art in Walthamstow Village.

The Village Festival takes place on Saturday, September 19, from noon to 6pm.

The one-day event includes outdoor stage for musical performance in the Vestry Road playground while the Asian Centre will stage an artists and makers fayre.

Youngsters are to perform in contest for under-18s called

Youth Talent Slot.

Oxford Road is to be closed to vehicles all day from its junction with East Avenue up to the Ancient House in Church Lane.

Vestry Road is to also shut while East Avenue will remain open.

The car parking area in front of Trelawney Close is to be set up as a children's area.

For information email walthamstowfestival@gmail.com or call 020 8223 0707.

FUN: Organisers of the Village Festival hope residents enjoy free activities

Police investigate teen kidnap claim

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

DETECTIVES are appealing for information over an allegation of kidnap, false imprisonment and prostitution.

Waltham Forest Police are keen to trace two witnesses who may have information that could assist them following an incident on Wednesday, April 29, at 9.55pm.

Witness appeal following incident in Norfolk Road

A 19-year-old woman claimed she had been falsely imprisoned at an address in Norfolk Road.

She escaped and sought help from a woman in Higham Hill Recreation Ground.

The witness, who was with her child, called a taxi for the victim.

She is described as black, with curly hair.

The second witness is a taxi driver of Asian appearance. He was driving a black car with the word "taxi" on it.

He collected the victim from the recreation ground and dropped her off at Harts Lane, Barking.

Anyone with information is asked to call 020 3276 0958 or 101. Alternatively contact Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

What headteachers in east London said:

Claire Osborn, headmistress of Normanhurst School, Station Road, Chingford, said: "Many students this year have risen to the challenge of achieving good GCSE grades, particularly with the increase in difficulty of GCSEs over the past few years. "It is a just reward for their hard work, together with the hard work of their teachers."

Sir Paul Grant, headteacher of Robert Clack School, Becontree Heath, said: "These results are the most gratifying in our school's history. Every single subject area improved or maintained their performance; consequently our children have excelled across the board at a time when examinations have been made significantly more difficult."

Ges Smith, head of Jo Richardson School, Castle Green, Dagenham, said: "There was outstanding achievement throughout the whole Year 11 cohort. "I am particularly proud of those students who battled real personal challenges in order to achieve their goals."

Roger Leighton, headteacher of Sydney Russell School, Parsloes Avenue, Dagenham, said: "After our record A-level results, we are delighted to celebrate another set of excellent GCSE results, with the majority of subjects performing significantly above the national average."

GCSE grades rise

SUCCESS: Chigwell youngsters are moving on to further education or work

GRADE: Top performing Eastbury pupils with headteacher, Leigh Hovey, and Councillor Evelyn Carpenter

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

STUDENTS from across east London are jumping for joy after picking up their GCSE grades.

Pupils from schools in Barking and Dagenham, Redbridge, and Waltham Forest, took the dreaded journey back to school last Thursday to discover the results of five years' work.

In Barking and Dagenham, more than 55 per cent of pupils achieved five A*-C grades in English and maths.

Dagenham Park and Eastbrook schools both achieved a rise in their five-plus grades in both key subjects of two per cent and six per cent respectively, while Robert Clack School recorded a rise of three per cent to 64.6.

Councillor Evelyn Carpenter, Barking and Dagenham Council's cabinet member for education and schools, said: "Schools have worked hard to improve the outcomes and opportunities for our young people and I am very proud of every young person who sat their exams this summer."

In Redbridge, the percentage of children receiving five A*-C grades has gone up from 77 per cent last year to 78 per cent this year.

There were particular successes and improvements at Wanstead and Forest Academy which saw more than a three per cent increase on their performance from last year.

Councillor Elaine Norman, cabinet member for children and young people, said: "I am once again delighted with the high standard of performance from Redbridge's students."

"Redbridge has a fantastic reputation for education and each year we show why, when our students perform so well in their exams."

Results in Waltham Forest show that the percentage of pupils achieving five or more A*-C grades or equivalent leapt from 66 per cent to 69 per cent.

Councillor Mark Rusling, council cabinet member for children and young people, said: "Judging by the results we've received, our schools have done an absolutely fantastic job raising the bar once again."

"Well done to all of the students who have reaped the rewards of their dedication during their time at school."

"Congratulations to the excellent teaching staff, whose passion for education has helped produce what's looking like the most successful GCSE year we've had."

Delfina Witkowska, who studied at Lammass School and Sports College in Leyton, was one of the borough's stand-out performers.

He secured 12 A's and A grades, three of which she took a year early.

College is a winner

A COLLEGE has won a prestigious award for its curriculum.

Leyton Sixth Form, in Essex Road, was awarded STEM assured status by the Innovation Institute, which is given to educational facilities for the quality of teaching in key subjects of science, maths, computing and information technology.

SUCCESS: Principal Kevin Watson with students celebrating the award

The status followed a partnership with Sir George Monoux College and Heathcote and Holy Family schools. Principal Kevin Watson said: "The securing of the awards represents another major feather in our college's cap.

"This latest award provides external evidence of the quality of our curriculum. It also demonstrates the benefits of partnership working."

The college had to demonstrate that it was taking a varied approach to education.

Councillors vow to protect gardens

A MEMORIAL garden looks set to be protected for future generations.

Redbridge councillors were recommended to grant a "deed of dedication" for Ilford War Memorial Gardens yesterday (Thursday).

The deed will stop the site being turned into land for development.

Cllr Dev Sharma, cabinet member for civic pride, said, "The memorial gardens are not just a place of tremendous civic pride and a Green Flag park, they represent the sacrifice of those who gave their lives for this country."

The plans are part of a nationwide initiative by Fields in Trust to honour the memory of the millions of people who died in the First World War.

'Sparkling people' can join cabaret John, 86

Help raise cash for a 'copter

A GRANDFATHER who has run a free variety act for 40 years is looking for performers to join him on tour.

John Dudman, of Fullwell Avenue, Barkingside, has been a member of Cab-hoo-ray since the 1970s and has performed across east London and Essex.

The group perform for free but ask for donations to Great Ormond Street and Barts hospitals.

Retired clerical assistant John, 86, claims he is fully booked and needs a few more entertainers to audition for shows up until December.

The father-of-one said: "What we need is big sparkling people, maybe a few girl dancers.

"I expect our group to be around forever. We have had some great responses from our shows.

"The standard of entertainment is high, fast moving, the kind of stuff you don't see on television, and I believe it's good enough to be shown on the big screen.

"I am very proud of this group. We are like an extended family."

Cab-hoo-ray are next performing on Friday, September 11, at Home Heather in Beehive Lane, Ilford.

They are due to appear at May Bank Court, in Aldersbrook Road, Wanstead, on Saturday, September 25, and at Gaywood Court in Squirrel Heath Lane, Gidea Park, on Friday, October 16. Each show starts at 8pm.

For more information on Cab-hoo-ray call 020 8551 6853.

A CAMPAIGN has been launched to fund a second medical helicopter for the city.

London's Air Ambulance needs residents to join The Big Lift to help pay for another emergency helicopter.

Last year the charity treated 57 patients in Waltham Forest, 44 in Barking and Dagenham and 40 patients in Redbridge.

Charity executives claim when the helicopter is available, the team can be by a patient's side eight times faster than in a rapid response car.

But London's only air ambulance has been out of action for 50 days this year for maintenance.

Email yourhelicopter@londonairsambulance.co.uk or call 020 7220 5476 to join the fundraising campaign.

PRESSURE: Councillor Jas Athwal, leader of Redbridge Council, supports the new school

Muslim faith school could get go-ahead

A COUNCIL looks set to approve plans to develop a Muslim faith school in two years.

Redbridge Council is to discuss plans on Thursday, September 3, to allow the establishment of Al Noor voluntary-aided primary school, in Green Lane, Ilford, which would provide two forms of entry and cater for 420 children from the community when fully open.

The council's cabinet will then make a decision on the proposal on September 8.

If the proposal to establish the school in September 2017 is approved, it is expected that the Secretary of State for Education will designate the school as a Muslim faith school.

While admissions priority will be given to Muslim children for half the places, the other half will be open to all who apply.

Councillor Jas Athwal, leader of Redbridge Council, said, "We consider any application for a new school on its merits and after careful reflection of the papers we believe that the proposed primary school such as the one proposed could really benefit the borough."

The school would be built on the site of the current Al-Noor independent school, which will close, as well as land adjacent to the site.

The council, which would contribute £8.5million to the new school, has been consulting on the proposals.

Teen part of gang guilty of murder

VICTIM: Jeremie Malenge

KILLERS: Tre Morgan, left, and Sanaa Ibrahim

By Matthew Stanton

waltham@yellowad.co.uk

A GANG including a Woodford Green teenager have been found guilty of murder.

Sanaa Ibrahim, 18, of Homerton Road, Hackney, and Tre Morgan, 18, of Lyham Road, Brixton, were found guilty of the murder of Jeremie Malenge, from Hackney, along with a 17-year-old youth from Woodford Green and a 14-year-old boy from Hackney at the Old Bailey on Friday, August 21.

The identity of the two youngest attackers cannot be revealed because of their ages.

Police were called at 11.40pm on Tuesday, January 6, to Ponsford Street, Hackney to reports of a stabbing and later found 17-year-old Jeremie Malenge of Arcola Street, Hackney, suffering from stab wounds.

Detective Chief Inspector Ken Hughes said: "Jeremie ran for his life but was caught by his attackers where they stabbed him.

"Immediately after the incident they fled leaving him bleeding on the pavement.

"In spite of valiant attempts to save him by all emergency services attending, Jeremie sadly died at the scene.

"Nothing can bring Jeremie back to his family, but I and my team hope that today's verdict brings a measure of comfort."

All the killers are due to sentenced at the Old Bailey on Friday, September 25.

V Fest basks in hot talent

Hylands Park event is favourite festival of stars and crowds alike

V FESTIVAL'S 20th anniversary was a sizzler thanks to temperatures soaring to 31 degrees celsius and some of the hottest musical talent around.

Headliners Kasabian and Calvin Harris were not the only ones to steal the show as there were outstanding performances from Ellie Goulding, Sam Smith, Ella Eyre, Olly Murs and Kodaline.

Imelda May opened the Virgin Media Stage on Saturday and returned later in the evening with Sir Tom Jones on the MTV Stage.

The singer-songwriter from Dublin joined the Welsh legend for a duet. She said: "I got a call to say would you like to sing with Tom Jones, what would you say?"

Sir Tom announced they would release an album together this year.

He also told the crowd: "We have a book coming out and a new record coming out, so you can get two for one – it's all the truth."

On Saturday fans at Hylands Park watched as Labrinth popped the question to his long-term girlfriend, Muz.

During his set the singer and producer got down on one knee to propose and she said yes.

Multi award-winning singer Smith declared V Festival as his favourite show of the calendar before saying he was off to write his next album after the weekend.

Despite a downpour the rain did not dampen spirits on Sunday as the crowds seemed to grow to enjoy Goulding, Harris, Paloma Faith, Stereophonics and Eyre.

One of the best Suzuki models going

By Ian Johnson

THOSE masters of the small car at Suzuki realigned the range and one of the smart choices is the Celerio.

Built in Thailand, the Celerio embodies many of the qualities that have seen Suzuki sales rise in recent times, including ease of driving, an elevated driving position, interior space that surpasses expectations and a surprisingly good luggage capacity.

In fact it offers a degree of the qualities of a SUV without the usually massive expense and size.

The Celerio is a compact crossover and its initial 1.0 three-cylinder petrol engine is now joined by a Dualjet version of the same engine, which returns a staggering combined economy figure of 78.4mpg and a very low CO2 figure of 84g/km.

This version costs £8,499 and is very well equipped with six airbags and ESP fitted as standard safety equipment for both UK models.

Strong residual values of 39 per cent at three years/60,000 miles are forecast by Glass's Guide this month.

On the road this version may not be the fastest set of wheels in the garage, but its top speed of 96mph and 0-62mph sprint should be enough to satisfy the customer who has an eye to economy as well as performance.

And the fact that the fuel gauge does not seem to want to move is a major plus point too.

In everyday driving I was getting at least 69mpg which was impressive to say the least.

It is surprisingly comfortable with an elevated driving position that takes much stress out of long trips.

Its three-cylinder engine is reasonably silent but it does work hard.

The real beauty of this car is its ease of operation in cities where total length of just 3,600mm and neat turning circle make it a doddle to park.

It is also extremely roomy for a small car with best-in-class boot space of 254 litres.

Even the basic model includes air conditioning, alloy wheels DAB radio, CD tuner plus Bluetooth and USB connectivity.

It competes against cars like the VW Up! and Skoda Citigo and how it fares remains to be seen.

It is certainly one of the best models I have seen from Suzuki in recent times.

This is Suzuki's first big throw at producing a modern global city car with wide appeal and its neat clean cut lines and balance of compact dimension with interior space promise a healthy future.

Media Sales Executive

Yellow Advertiser has been published in this area and been a part of the community in Basildon since 1976.

An opportunity has arisen in our new Basildon office to join our busy sales team. We are looking for really exceptional individuals who can become part of our commercial division which we are currently expanding. The successful candidates will have many responsibilities in this varied sales role, giving priority to developing new business by cold calling and building relationships with prospective clients. To be successful in our business you need to have a flexible approach to work and be prepared to dig in and roll up your sleeves when the going gets a little bit tough! A proven sales background is essential and we are looking for highly motivated individuals who are keen to learn and keen to earn. A good command of the English language and good writing skills are most definitely a prerequisite, as are good listening skills and computer literacy.

What is in it for you:

Basic Salary plus tiered bonus structure, 5 weeks holiday per annum, Pension Scheme (after qualifying period), Fully expensed company car, On-going training.

If this sounds like the opportunity for you please email Vickywright@yellowad.co.uk with your current CV and the reasons why you match our requirements.

Previous applicants need not apply.

Yellow Advertiser is part of the Tindle Newspapers Ltd., a group of privately owned, independent, family newspapers.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Advertisers in Advertising. Save that:

- Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
- "Classified" Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature, will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed "Trade Advertisers", and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.
- Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.
- Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.
- The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.
- Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowance.
- All gross advertising rates (except classified line and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertiser to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.
- All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.
- Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.
- The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.
- Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.
- All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.
  - Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.
  - Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue or discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1954.
- Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.
- All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.
- All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.
- The Publisher may provide web services for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.
- The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies. Box numbers alone are not available for use in "Trade" advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies. However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

COX KEEPS ORIENT EXPRESS ON TRACK

Leyton Orient

Newport County 2 Leyton Orient 3

By Rowland Lyons at Rodney Parade

LEYTON Orient maintained their 100 per cent record but got the shock of their lives after throwing away a two-goal lead.

Paul McCallum and Jay Simpson had seemingly set the O's on their way to three points but they got a wake-up call when County struck twice either side of half-time with goals from Scott Boden and Mark Byrne.

Dean Cox restored the east Londoners' advantage 10 minutes into the second-half and it stayed that way, but the O's had to work hard.

Orient raced into a two-goal lead inside seven minutes, with McCullum opening the scoring with a fine header after Cox carved open a static Exiles' defence, before Simpson doubled their lead with a stunning, angled drive with Cox again in the thick of the action.

Even before County had managed their first attack, the points should have been heading to east London, with McCullum nodding a great chance over a stranded Joe Day's bar and soon after his header, from Cox's flag-kick, ran along the Newport crossbar.

County couldn't get any worse and with the O's seemingly flagging in the South Wales heat, Boden reduced the deficit four minutes from the break with a drive that beat Alex Cisak via the underside of the bar.

Incredibly, and within seconds of the restart, County were level when skipper Byrne tried his luck from 30 yards and beat the diving Cisak, again with the help of the woodwork.

The visitors were by now on the rack and only Cisak's fingertips stood between Danny Holmes's rising drive and an unbelievable turnaround.

O's boss Ian Hendon tried to steady the ship and shortly after the introduction of Ollie Palmer and Blair Turgott, Cox nipped in and beat Day at his near post, with a typical poacher's strike, after Turgott wriggled free of his marker.

But Orient had to earn the right to remain the only Football League outfit with a perfect record and Cisak made another fine save to keep out Boden's header, before late sub Josh Laurent wasted the Rebels' best chance and blazed over from 10 yards deep into stoppage time.

A relieved Hendon admitted: "We started the game really well, got two good goals and nearly got a third. If that had gone in, it would have been a different game."

"But they got back in the game – and it was a kick up the backside for us."

"Half-time came at a good time as we made some changes. Coxy then gets another goal, but Newport were still in the ascendancy and they made us work hard but that's football."

Newport chief, ex-England skipper Terry Butcher, added: "How do think I feel after this defeat? It's terrible. I thought we deserved a little a lot more from the game."

"We had chances to equalise before the end of the game and they scored their third goal totally against the run of play."

"We're just disappointed we let all our good possession and chances slip by. But it's not for the sake of trying."

"The win will come, but we were playing the team top of table. But we were naive at times and conceding goals we shouldn't have."

Cisak said: "We had to dig deep in the second-half to get the three points. We should have gone three up, but they got their goals and they made it very hard for us. We will have to play a lot better against Bristol Rovers this Saturday."

Turgott added: "We showed great character in the second-half. The league table is looking good, but it's still early doors. We still have to reach our target for 10 games and have a lot to do. We've now got a bit of a reputation of winning games and teams will want to beat us. Bristol will be a good test this weekend, especially with the home supporters behind us."

Newport County: Joe Day, Danny Holmes, Regan Poole, Kevin Feely, Scott Barrow, Medy Elito, Mark Byrne (captain), Yan Klukowski (Tom Owen-Evans 83), Seth Nana Twumasi, Scott Boden (Josh Laurent 75), Zak Ansah (Aaron Collins 68).

Referee: Brendan Malone

Assistants: Brett Huxtable and Robert Merchant.

Attendance: 2,779 (525 away).

Non-league round-up

Rampant Aveley lead goalfest

By Brian Jeeves

THE Ryman League Division One North was the place to be for goals, as the net bulged in games involving our region's clubs.

Liam Nash, James Peagram, Paul Preston and Petrit Elbi (penalty) were all on target as a rampant Aveley thrashed Redbridge by four goals to one at Station Road.

Tilbury also had four on the score sheet, with Emiel Aiken, Kurt Smith, James Cook and a Luke Illsley own-goal securing a dramatic 4-3 win for the Dockers over Cheshunt at Chadfields.

Great Wakering Rovers fans got a reality check after their good start to the campaign.

Goals from Max Kent, Lewis Sparrow and Jay Nash had given the villagers a seemingly unsailable 3-1 half-time lead over Wroxham at Burroughs Park. But the Yachtsmen hit back to stun the home fans, winning by the odd goal in seven.

There was drama at Waltham Abbey where Barkingside grabbed a valuable point after Junior Ogedi-Uzokewa (2) and George Lutaaya earned Side a 3-3 draw.

Elsewhere David Knight's first-half spot-kick helped AFC Hornchurch to a 1-1 draw with Thamesmead Town at Bridge Avenue, and it was the same outcome at Harlow Town where Jamie Dicks found the net to earn Romford a share of the spoils.

In the Ryman Premier Division Grays Athletic took the honours in a big Essex derby.

Brad Thompson and James Stevens scored either side of the interval to secure a 2-0 win over Billericay Town, and there was an exciting contest at Leatherhead, where John Easterford's last-minute strike earned Canvey Island a 4-4 draw.

John Curran, Martin Tuohy and Marlon Agyakwa were also on target for the Gulls.

But it was not such good news for Brentwood Town who went down to Marc Charles-Smith's solitary goal at Harrow Borough.

In the National League Premier Division, Dan Sparkes' 23rd minute goal was enough to earn improving Braintree Town maximum points against former Football League outfit Southport.

This latest win took the Iron up to 13th place in the top Division.

However, it was an afternoon to forget for our National League South clubs.

Morgan and Hugo Skepeltorn found the net, but it was not enough to prevent Chelmsford City from slipping to a 4-2 defeat at Whitehawk.

And it was no better for Concord Rangers, who crashed 3-0 to Hemel Hempstead at the Aspect Arena.

In the Essex Senior League, leaders Bowers & Pitsea marched on with a 2-0 win over London Bari. Hullbridge Sports were also 2-0 winners, Greenhouse London the team leaving Lower Road without any points.

At Cricklefield Stadium Ilford edged out Stansted by the odd goal in three, while Newham were involved in an exciting 2-2 draw at Sawbridgeworth.

Eton Manor played out a 1-1 draw with Barkingside and it was the same outcome at Southchurch Park Arena between Southend Manor and Takeley.

Game of the day in the ProKit UK Essex Senior League Premier Division saw White Ensign hammer May & Baker 5-0 at the Len Forge Centre. Gary Ticehurst hit a brace for the home side, with Yaw Danso, Lee Delf and Darren Burrell were also on target.

Robins reliant as wasteful Blues misfire again

Southend United

Southend United 0

Swindon Town 1

Brian Jeeves reporting from Roots Hall Stadium

WASTEFUL Southend United's frustrating search for a first victory continues as they passed up a series of chances before going down to Fabien Robert's second-half strike.

Blues manager Phil Brown had taken responsibility for the defeat to Walsall at Roots Hall seven days earlier, but was buoyed by the response from his charges in gaining a useful point from a goalless mid-week draw at Doncaster Rovers.

Blues were celebrating 60 years at their Roots Hall home, but on what was a sweltering afternoon it was Swindon who were first to display a threat.

United goalkeeper Daniel Bentley did well to scoop away Nathan Byrne's low drive, while the Swindon man was also unable to profit from the follow-up.

Southend responded, but Noel Hunt's flashing header was just off target, this after David Worrall had picked him out. Soon after, Lawrence Vigouroux in the Swindon goal did well to pluck Jack Payne's teasing centre as Adam Barrett lurked menacingly.

Clear-cut chances in the opening period continued to come at a premium. Worrall sent an effort from distance just past an upright, while at the other end, Fabien Robert's flashing header was too high for the Robins, after Brandon Ormonde-Ottewill fashioned the opening.

Straight after the break Blues passed up a couple of glorious opportunities to open the scoring.

Hunt found room behind the Robins' back-line after good work from Payne and Will Atkinson, but Vigouroux did well to thwart the Irishman's attempt with his feet.

Then the busy Payne should have hit the target, firing wide from close range after Hunt had nodded into his path.

And the chances continued to come for Southend. Hunt was unable to direct Ben Coker's low centre goalwards, and just after the hour mark they were made to pay for their wastefulness.

Robert finished a lightning raid forward, nipping onto Byrne's pass before directing beyond Bentley for his third goal in as many games, sending the noisy band of visiting fans into raptures.

Brown threw Myles Weston and Anthony Wordsworth on in place of Atkinson and Michael Timlin, and it almost paid dividends when Weston's close range header was brilliantly tipped over by Vigouroux.

In stoppage time Vigouroux produced another top-class stop to deny substitute Joe Pigott, while Coker fired just over as Blues pressed.

Weston fluffed his lines after Pigott's scuffed shot had found its way into his path. But again, a lack of quality in the final third proved costly for Southend.

Speaking afterwards, Brown said: "We've only got one goal in five games and that quite simply points towards something. But I can't ask anymore from the players."

"I think once this season we've let ourselves down, let the side down, let the shirt down and let the supporters down and that was the Walsall game. But today, I can't say that we've let anybody down, apart from sticking the ball in the back of the net, which is a key part of the game and is the most important part of the game."

Brown continued: "We've come up against one of the better teams in the division, last year they got into the play-offs, and rightly so, with the way they played. They've scored nine goals in four games before they came here and we've narrowed them down to huff and puff really in the first half. Then they got the goal, and that changed the whole dynamics of the game."
